GOLDEN DAYS

Now come the glorious days when the women will want to be at their best. It is the time of the fall of the leaf, the rich tingling, livable days of the Autumn, when every woman's fancy turns to the thought of new fashion, vibrant of the season.

For all women we have new and plenty stocks now ready.

Fine in their appointment, absolute in their fashions, standard in the quality and dependable as to value—a pleasure for all eyes to see.

We never have felt more confident in our ability to serve Clarksburg's people than at this time.

Take a walk through the store tonight, visit the four floors; come, enjoy, learn.

NOTICE

Just a word in passing to say that Miss Tierney was here yesterday enroute to New York to attend the embroidery assembly, to secure the new stitches in embroidery for the benefit of the class here early in January, 1916.

Wirthmor Waists, $1 Wirthmor Blouses, $2

The September selling of blouses increased a little over one-half. We have sold more waists than ever before up to this time of October. More than a three thousand waist stock in our new store to meet every demand made upon it.

Any manufacturer in this country would be glad to serve you through this store, but not all measure up to the high standard; however, we are able to offer many fresh opportunities daily, but most noticeably are the four new styles of the Wirthmore Waists at $1.00 and the two new styles of the Wirthmore blouses at $2.00 that come to us every Saturday.

Women's Silk Stockings

These are wonderfully serviceable stockings and we have them in sizes and colors enough to realize what really good values they are.

Infant's silk and wool hose, price 35c.

Tonight In Shoe Store

It is difficult to select any special features as characterizing the new shoe styles for women. There is such a wonderful lot of them, and are made so different from anything shown before.

Here are just a few of the better known groups.

Black Calf Skin, button and lace shoe, with several styles of heels.

Patent in black calf skin, button with black cloth tops with several styles of heels.

Patent and dull leather, button and lace, with dull matt kid skin tops.

One style bronze kid skin, button shoe. Street pumps, evening slippers, in a great variety of various colors.

The novelties baffle description. Price $3.00 to $5.00.

Night and Day Creams Give a Wholesome Look

The Pompeian Company have a night cream that comes in tubes, that everyone should use on their face and hands before retiring at night, and about twice a week they should use the massage cream, which gives the skin that wholesome look and a certain "glow" that one does not ordinarily have without such means. Night cream, 25c; day cream, 75c.

Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church held a few days ago at the church, much business pertaining to the affairs of the society was transacted. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. G. M. Smith, president; Mrs. A. V. Upton, vice president; Mrs. William Carr, treasurer, and Mrs. Carl Drummond, secretary.

To Make Address.

At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening a public meeting for all of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, members with an address by Mrs. Armstrong, of Logan, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Western Virginia Conference, will be held in the church. Following the program there will be a social hour.

Pittsburg Wedding.

A number of Clarksburgers will be interested in the following account of a wedding taken from Friday's Pittsburg Gazette-Times, as the bride is quite well known here.

and relatives and amid scenes of unusual beauty and brilliancy, Miss Priscilla Jane Black and Mr. Willard Porter Chandler, Jr., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock Tuesday evening. The event took a commanding position among the more interesting and important social functions of recent years in Duquesne.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William F. Silveus, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, and took place in that church, the interior of which had been transformed into a bower of beauty by the profuse use of palms, potted plants and southern smilax. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Howard L. Black. She wore an elegant gown of white chamoise lace combined with ivory satin, the court train of satin suspending from the shoulders. Her veil of white tulle was arranged around her head in Turkish style, with a spray of orange blossoms at the back. At her breast she wore the gift of the bridegroom—a handsome pin of platinum, jeweled with diamonds and emeralds. The bridegroom, with his best man, Mr. A. L. Spencer, met the bride at the altar, and the ring ceremony was added to the regular service.

The celebrated Lohengrin wedding march began promptly at 7:30 o'clock, with Mr. John D. Davies, Jr., Mr. Norman McLeod, Mr. Howard Black, Jr., and Mr. A. D. Polhemus, the ushers, leading the bridal party. Then followed Miss Irene Brown, of Duquesne, one of the bridesmaids, who wore an attractive gown of pink chamoise trimmed in silver with a tulle of pink tulle draped around her shoulders. Next came Misses Alma Davies and Grace Wilson, who were gowned in charming creations of pink, with scarfs of pink tulle and large bouquets of lavender chrysanthemums.

When the bridemaids reached the altar, the maid of honor, Miss Isabelle M. Maxwell, of Willow Bend Estate, West Union, W. Va., proceeded slowly down the aisle. She was beautifully attired in a gown of silver brocade pink tulle with under dress of silver lace. The gown was sleeveless and décolleté. Over the shoulders there was a butterfly scarf of lavender tulle, and she carried a large bouquet of lavender and white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle. Following her came the sister of the bride, Miss Fanny Black, who was also a maid of honor and looked lovely in a handsome gown of pink chamoise with delicate trimmed in gold lace, décolleté and sleeveless. She, too, wore a butterfly scarf of lavender tulle and carried lavender and white chrysanthemums. The little flower girls, Misses Virginia Black and one Emery, were typical in pink and white with their baskets of pink roses.

At the wedding supper, which followed the ceremony, and was given at the home of the bride's parents on South Third street, covers were laid for sixteen guests. Aside from the bridal party were Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McConnell, of Clairton; Miss Mary E. Maxwell, of West Virginia; and Harry R. Young, of Duquesne. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler later departed for their honeymoon, which they will spend in the East. Upon their return, they will take up their residence in Clairton.

The bride is one of Duquesne's most attractive young ladies. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Black, and has spent her entire life in the town. She is a graduate of the Mt. de Chantel seminary and an accomplished musician and vocalist. Mr. Chandler comes from Wilmington, Del., and is an honor graduate of Cornell University. At present he is engaged as a steam expert in the Clairton steel works. The bride received a large number of gifts, many of them of great value.
